Pre-Med

Life After Stroke Volunteer Opportunity

Life After Stroke is a non-profit organization that aims to support young adults who have survived a brain injury or stroke. Some initiatives for young stroke survivors include virtual support groups, newsletters, and return to work services. We are looking for volunteers to join our team! All volunteer roles are fully virtual! There are many opportunities to get involved, including social media coordinator, support group coordinator, and accounting/finance coordinator.

UCLA Career Center: Pre-Health Winter Quarter Drop Ins

If you are a UCLA student pursuing a career in a health profession – even if you’re not sure yet which one – you are in the right place. Our goal is to support students on their journey to become successful applicants who are committed to service and academic success, have developed qualities such as compassion, leadership and teamwork and are passionate about pursuing a health professions career.

Looking for some quick guidance about your pre-med or pre-health journey or application process? Stop by for a 15 minute 1:1 session (no appointment or registration needed!) on any of the following topics:

- Application process and timeline planning*
- Assistance applying for clinical, research, service, and educational opportunities
- Resume/CV/cover letter review
- General guidance on personal statements and interview preparation**
- Asking for letters of recommendation

Fridays, 12 PM - 1 PM

UBS Annual Jobs & Internships Fair

The Annual UBS Jobs & Internships Fair is a recruitment-focused career fair that allows employers to showcase internship and full-time opportunities in various industries such as finance, consulting, entertainment, public relations, communications, accounting, sales, operations, marketing, human resources, etc. The fair is open to all students at UCLA and typically attracts over 500 attendees from all majors and grade levels. Since it specifically caters to careers in business and is put on by the premier business organization at UCLA, it allows companies to gain exposure to a targeted, self-selected group of highly-motivated, top-tier students who have a vested interest in business careers.

Some companies that will be attending include KPMG, Oracle, UBS, Beghou Consulting, RPA, and more!

Wednesday, January 12th, 7–9 PM
